

SIS Board hits sunny Queensland – Out and about to meet the employees!

MSS Queensland received a visit from SIS Board members direct from New Delhi, Mr Uday Singh, Mr Rituraj Sinha, Mr Devesh Desai, and Australian Chairman Mr George Chin. The SIS guests visited the Swift Australia site as well as Southbank as part of the visit. Mr Uday Singh was also presented with MSS Security's Defence Industry Security Program membership from Mr Tony McKeown of the Defence Security Agency.

The Board members also had an opportunity to meet with Mr Fergus Ross and Mr Andrew Frowd of the Queensland University of Technology. Mr Ross presented Nick Samios, State General Manager,

The SIS Board with Southbank Parklands CEO Malcolm Snow.

Queensland with a Certificate of Appreciation for Nick's service and assistance to QUT over the past 10 years.

Nick said, "It was pleasing to introduce the SIS Board to customers and staff which showed a real commitment by them to the Australian business. The Board members were well received and showed genuine interest during the visits."
